

Bristol Underwater Photography Group

March 2024 Newsletter

A short newsletter this month. The March meeting was kindly hosted by Kirsty as Rick was across the Pond presenting his wreck talk. Following the monthly competition we went through this year's UPY winners. Once again, congratulations to all successful BUPG members.

Next meeting will be Tuesday 9th April

The competition theme is Conservation

Monthly competition:

Theme Portfolio

Defined as a portfolio of three separate images. Images may be of the same subject or scene, or they may be different subjects, but there should be an obvious connection and harmony between them.

Just seven entries for this. In first place with 4 votes was Cathy Lewis with a portfolio of yawning fish. In second, Kirsty Andrews with three Tompots, and in third Dan Bolt with a collection of British blennies.

Cathy's portfolio: Citron goby on a tubeworm case, Anilao, Philippines
Malabar grouper under the pier at Misool, Raja Ampat
Red grouper being cleaned, Bali

Kirsty's portfolio: Snooted blenny portrait, tompons battling and tompons with eggs

Dan's portfolio: (clockwise) Variable blenny, Babbacombe; Yarrell's blenny, Scotland; Butterfly blenny, Fal estuary

